Hi [REDACTED]

Thanks for writing to me.

In answer to your question, no.

Am I correct in assuming that you believe that biological males should be allowed to access single sex, female spaces, services and facilities?

Kind regards,

Hi there,

I saw your recent Facebook post regarding the discussion about gender neutral bathrooms.

I understand you said you said you don't want biological men in women's bathrooms. I asked the question if you will be checking peoples genitals before they enter.

It seems you have blocked me. As I understood, one of your principles is freedom of speech and you do not agree with censorship.

I am confused why you find a non offensive question that may differ to yours worthy of such an overreaction. You are my councillor and do you not serve all of your constituents, or just those who have the exact same views as yours.

Look forward to hearing from you.
