Dear [REDACTED]

Council previously informed you of our decision in relation to your Freedom of Information request, that certain documents were unable to be disclosed until the expiry of the affordable right to review period, which was 60 days from that date of our decision.

This review period has now expired without any ruling from VCAT on the matter.

Council may now release to you the remainder of the documents you sought as the subject of the FOI request.

In a few moments, you will receive a send files secure file transfer containing links to facilitate access to the documents. Please note that the documents will only be able to be downloaded once, so you will need to be sure to save each.

For a description of the sections of the FOI Act applied by Council to the documents, please refer to the Schedule of Documents which was attached to our decision email sent on the 28 October 2022.

Kind regards

 Paralegal Officer | Melton City Council
