Hi [REDACTED]

I must say that this letter seems to be communicating the opinions of people other than us Councillors, we never conceded that the Government's plans were going to make prostitutes safer and in fact did nothing but condemn the idea. I actually think this has been influenced too heavily by Council officers!

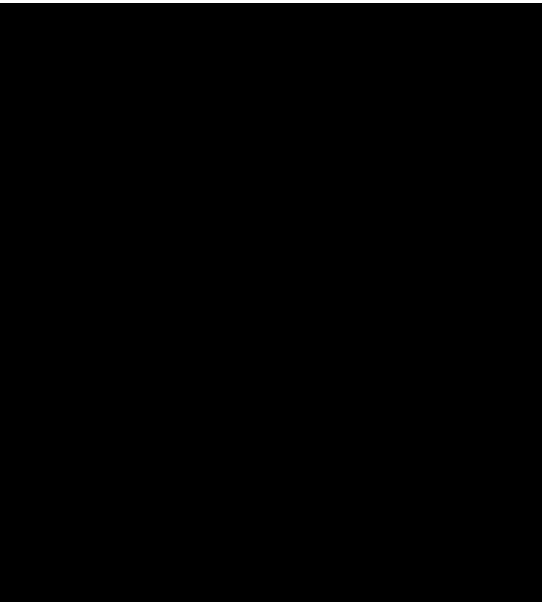

Kind regards,

Hi [REDACTED]
Thank you for the submission on this matter, are we able to also just add in the issues that Council sees could be a major concern as to how a 'Sex work Home Based Business' comply with the safety of minor children in the same Home?
And who would be expected to ensure compliance around this? Police or Council?

I'll give you a call if I can, speak soon.
And thank you for the submission, I think it hits the point very well considering we only had a very short window to provide a response.

Regards,

Hi [REDACTED]

Further to the briefing on Monday and roundtable discussion with mayors on Wednesday, please find attached draft council submission to the discussion paper for your consideration.

Please note that I've tried to focus of the regulatory issues, rather than commenting on more social/moral issues which is not really relevant to this process.

Anyway, happy to get your thoughts and please give me a call should you have any queries. I can arrange for the submission to be lodged with the department.

Regards
